FRED A ROGERS MARRIED JANUARY 1

The many friends of Fred A. Rogers, grand secretary of the Odd Fellows of Michigan, will be pleased to learn of his marriage to Miss Frieda Ruggie at 4 o'clock on New Year's day at the Rogers home in Reading. The only guests present were relatives and most intimate friends of the families. Rev. L. L. Dewey performed the marriage ceremony, after which a dainty wedding luncheon was served. Our distinguished townsman, Harry L. McNeil, and wife were among those present at the wedding.

The happy bride and groom have been spending the week in Detroit. Mr. Rogers has many friends in Paw Paw who extend the very best to him and his bride.

CONGRATULATIONS.

The True Northerner extends congratulations to Brother M. F. Russell of Bangor on the completion of his 25 years of service as editor and publisher of the Bangor Advance. Here's hoping that he may round out another quarter century in the editorial chair of this splendid publication.

HAWLEY & WARNER MOVED.

The Hawley & Warner undertaking establishment is now located in the old post office block, corner of Main and Niles streets. The balance of their furniture stock has been sold and is being moved to Kalamazoo. It is a source of much gratification that this estimable firm is to remain in business in Paw Paw.

Sealing Wax.

Sealing wax in the present form was first noted in London in the middle of the sixteenth century.

Bottles and Corks.

Glass bottles with cork stoppers did not come into use until the middle of the fourteenth century.

High School Notes

Douglas Hindenach, 17

Rev. Smith conducted chapel Monday morning.

Miss Hilton was unable to meet her classes Monday morning.

Joseph Clifford has entered the 8th grade.

Miss Grace Marshall visited the 7th grade Tuesday.

George Kesler of the 7th grade is sick and unable to go to school.

Many of last year's graduates visited the literary program given by the Columbia society Thursday before Christmas vacation.

ATTENDED MEETING.

The following named gentleman went from Paw Paw to attend the Good Roads meeting in Battle Creek Wednesday night: Supervisors Kirby of Covert and Anderson of Hartford, M. H. Young, H. L. McNeil, Frank Labadie, Chas. Bilsborough, Chas. Morrison, Harry Tellam, David Anderson and W. R. Sellick. They report a splendid banquet and reception at the Sanitarium, and a most enthusiastic and profitable meeting.

Sad Joy.

A minister who had resigned from his church was making his farewell calls. He called at the home of one of his parishioners, who sent her little girl down to the parlor to entertain the minister for a few minutes, the mother not being dressed to receive him. After a few of the customary remarks about the weather the little girl said to the minister:

"I hear that we are to have the sad pleasure of leaving you." — Chicago News.

SUPERVISORS IN ANNUAL SESSION

The board of supervisors are in session this week. Chairman Westgate is ill and unable to be in attendance, and Supervisor Coleman of Antwerp is acting in that capacity. The work of the board thus far has been the usual routine work of a January session. They will undoubtedly complete their labors this week and a detailed report of the session will be given in our next issue.

HYMENEAL

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Root of Kendall, on Saturday, December 25, 1915, at high noon, a quiet wedding was solemnized when their oldest daughter, Lillie May, was united in marriage to Carl W. Coulson of Waverly, by Rev. C. D. Banister. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed, after which the party repaired to the dining room, where a bountiful dinner was served.

The bride has spent the greater part of her life in Kendall, where she has gained a large circle of friends. She has been one of the most successful school teachers of Van Buren county.

The groom is a young man of estimable character and a progressive farmer of Waverly township.

The happy couple left on the evening train to visit Plainwell and other places. Mrs. Coulson will complete her term of school, after which they will begin housekeeping.

"PIT"

Miss Mildred Shepard in honor of the friends who were at home last week on their vacation from the various institutions of learning entertained the Misses Esther Stevenson, Pauline Sellick, Margaret Cole, Laura Cole, Florence Howe, Carrie Latchaw, Marion Mutchler and the Messrs. Maguire, McKinstry, Litchaw, Mutchler, Showman, Markille, Maurice and Chas Cole at a "Pit" party Thursday evening. Dainty refreshments were served by the young hostess, and a jolly good time was reported by all present.

The Order of the Eastern Star had a very pleasant evening at their Chapter rooms Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson were initiated into the degree of the Order, after which a fine luncheon was served in the dining room.

RARE TREAT FOR FELLOWSHIP CLUB

Prof. Reinhold of W. S. N. Gives Scholarly Address. Corned "Red Hen" on Refreshment Menu.

The third meeting of the Fellowship club was held at the home of H. E. Ball on Wednesday evening. The inclemency of the weather kept many members of the club away, which was to be regretted, as this was one of the most pleasant and instructive meetings the club ever held.

The musical numbers were furnished by the High School orchestra, with Mrs. W. R. Sellick at the piano, and vocal solos by Robert Dillon, Miss Lucile White, accompanist. Both the orchestra and vocalist responded to several encores.

The address of the evening was given by Prof. R. M. Reinhold of the Western State normal. Prof. Reinhold is at the head of the department of education and psychology. He is authority on the subject of psychology and has achieved prominence in educational circles. He chose for his subject, "The Viewpoint of the other Fellow," and his address was given the rapt and appreciative attention it deserved. It is sincerely hoped that the Fellowship club may again have the pleasure of listening to an address from this profound student and learned scholar.

Many compliments were received by the ladies of the committee on the excellence of the refreshments. The part of the menu that was particularly enjoyed was corned "red hen," a rare "bird" that roams the dense forests of the upper peninsula of Michigan. Mine host, Emory, is authority on the history, habits and best modes of trapping the "red hen" and it is to him that the club was indebted for this delicacy.

STREET SIGNS AND NUMBERS INSPECTED

Postoffice Inspector E. D. Howe of Coldwater was in town Wednesday to inspect the street signs and residence numbers preparatory to the installation of city delivery service in Paw Paw.

The postmaster is unable to state when this service can commence. The inspector's report must be reviewed by the postoffice department and if given favorable consideration a civil service examination will be called for the examination of applicants for carrier service, the examination papers reviewed by the civil service commission and an eligible list certified to the postmaster for the selection of carriers. This all takes time and it is probable that under the most favorable circumstances city delivery service cannot begin in Paw Paw before spring. In the meantime, there are a few residences without numbers that should receive attention.

A FINE CHRISTMAS PRESENT

The True Northerner was the recipient of a very nice Christmas present from one of our local nurserymen. The gift was unsolicited, but having done considerable work for this firm, they seem perfectly satisfied to trust us with an order which carries with it:

12,000, 20 page catalogues.
10,000, No 9 Envelopes.
10,000, No 6 Address Envelopes.
10,000, Order Blanks.
2,000, Shipping Tags.

This will keep our force busy the rest of the month, at any rate, as the order has to be completed for the spring business.

In our Job Department we guarantee you SERVICE, and that of the best quality. There is no job too small or one too large, but what we will give you an estimate, and guarantee you as good, if not better service and work than you can possibly obtain elsewhere. During the past year we have filled nearly 500 orders for work in our job department. The stamp of Quality has been stamped on every one, and as a result we have 500 "Satisfied" customers added to our list. We do work for particular people.

"Home Sweet Home"

Henry Ford arrived in the city of New York last Sunday on the Norwegian-American liner Bergensfjord. Having failed in his mission of "getting the boys out of the trenches" by Christmas, he says that he did not regret going, and feels sure that some good will come from his undertaking. He blames the very people that he went to see. They have neglected to select the proper heads for their governments, or to help them after they have been selected, is his verdict.

Mrs. Fred Alexander and son Sheldon have returned to their home in Detroit after a few weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon.

SHOULD YOU JOIN THE CHURCH? NO!

No. If you get along without it; if you have no spiritual needs which the church alone can meet; if you have no passion for service which can be exercised only through the avenues of the church; if you have no love for Jesus which draws you irresistibly to that institution for which He shed His blood, then you should not join the church.

No. If the church itself is not necessary to the community in which you live; if you should be willing to live and rear your children where the church bells never toll, where the voice of worship is never heard, and where the ideals of religion never stamp their impress; if you can forget that from its inception the church has ever led the march of civilization; that ignorance, superstition and crime have fled from its presence like dew before the sun; if you could now consent to its removal from your community, then you should not join the church.

No. If the Book is not essential to your life; if it means nothing to you that the Bible has supplied the ideals for the world's greatest art, has inspired the favorite music of the ages and is at once the basis and substance of all the truly great literature of the world; if you can now afford to lose the Bible and every trace of its influence in the world, then you should not join the church.

The Greatest Historian.

By common consent the greatest of all historians is Thucydides, the Greek contemporary of Pericles and author of the history of the Peloponnesian war. One of the greatest tributes that can be paid to him is that, according to the estimate of a very able critic, we have a more exact account of a long and eventful period by Thucydides than we have of any period in modern history, equally long and eventful, and yet all this is compressed into a single volume. For concise, vigorous and yet intense presentation Thucydides has never been equaled. He is easily the king of historians. — New York American.

Didn't Wait the Attack.

At Boulogne during a royal reception some years ago a number of English ladies in their anxiety to see everything pressed with such force against the soldiers who were keeping the line that the soldiers were forced to give way and generally were, as policemen say, "hindered in the execution of their duty." The officer in command, observing the state of affairs, called out: "One roll of the drum! If they don't stand back kiss them all!" After the first sound of the drum the ladies took to flight.

"If they had been French," said a Parisian journal, "they would have remained to a woman."

SPLENDID GOOD ROADS MEETING

Hon. Dallas Boudeman and W. M. Bryant Address Large Audience at Court House.

The "Good Roads" meeting held at the court house last Tuesday evening was the most successful meeting of its kind ever held in Paw Paw. The court room was well filled with an attentive and enthusiastic audience. Glenn E. Warner called the meeting to order and introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Hon. Dallas Boudeman of Kalamazoo. Mr. Boudeman is an eloquent and forceful speaker, no matter what may be his subject and his address was listened to with rapt attention. Mr. Boudeman gave a comprehensive review of the "Good Roads" movement throughout the United States, the "Lincoln Highway", "The Dixie Trail" and the paved way from Detroit to Chicago, just launched, all received proper attention. He also explained the effort required on the part of a few gentlemen to get Michigan included in the "Dixie Trail" plan. He dwelt at some length on the advantages to be derived as individuals and as a state from the "Good Roads" movement, which is now only in its infancy.

W. M. Bryant, field secretary of the Kalamazoo good roads commission was present and addressed the meeting. Mr. Bryant is an enthusiastic advocate of the "County Road" system of building roads and urged his audience to support the proposition that is to come before the voters in the spring election.

Nearly the entire board of supervisors was present, and they, with others appointed by the chairman, constituted a delegation to attend the "Detroit to Chicago Paved Way" meeting in Battle Creek Wednesday evening.

The route as selected through Van Buren county for the Dixie Trail will without doubt be the route through the county for the Detroit to Chicago road.

THE EDISON DIAMOND DISC CERTAINLY A WINNER

The members of the Schoolcraft high school, in purchasing a phonograph for use in their schools, left the decision as to the kind of machine that should grace their halls to the popular vote of the teachers and pupils. The vote resulted as follows: Edison Diamond Disc 374; Sonora 1; Pathe 0; Cheeny 0; Columbia 0; Victor 0. The whole number of votes cast was 375, the Edison winning all but one vote.

F. J. Kroth of the De Luxe music shop, Paw Paw, made the sale of a $250 Diamond Disc to the school.

ADJOURNED COURT SESSION

Judge and Mrs. L. B. Des Voignes arrived in Paw Paw, Wednesday. The judge is holding an adjourned session of court to dispose of an important chancery case prior to the regular session, which comes next Monday.

There Is The Only Range For Me

"I have been using my Round Oak Chief for 10 years, and it seems now just as good as new."

"Mr. Waters showed me a cheap range in their store a few days ago that they had taken in on an exchange toward a New Round Oak. It had been used but 5 or 6 years, and was all to pieces—worth practically nothing."

"My advice is to buy the Round Oak if you want satisfaction."
